Finally someone has decided to throw light on the tragic plight of all men before the world. Yes! Men equally need love & care, they love being loved as much as women do. And let's admit it, if not for the men in our world life would be pretty incomplete.

So without being late, let's celebrate! Share this video with every man to make him smile & with every woman to make her realize his worth.

#GoBlue! Celebrate International Men's Day on 19th November by wearing blue.
