It's Men's Day today, guys!

Mother's Day, Father's Day, Women's Day etc... we have all these dedicated days for these people. Our men are clearly feeling left out so 19th of November has been declared Men's Day. The guys at HE Be Interesting have come up with a hilarious video addressing the trials and tribulations that men go through on a regular basis and how it's unfair that one day is not set aside to celebrate them. Awww.

This is the men's cry for attention and appreciation for all that they do.

Go ahead and #ShowMenSomeLove and while you're at it, wear blue to support the "cause."
